

UNIVERSIDAD TECNOLÓGICA SANTA CATARINA

Program for Educational Inclusion for Students with Disabilities

MD Ana Bertha Tamez Salas

There are 5 million 739 thousand individuals with disabilities in Mexico, which represents 5.1% of the population.

In average, the number of years people with disabilities spend in school is 4.4 years.

Characteristics of the Sub-system of Technical and Politechnical Universities

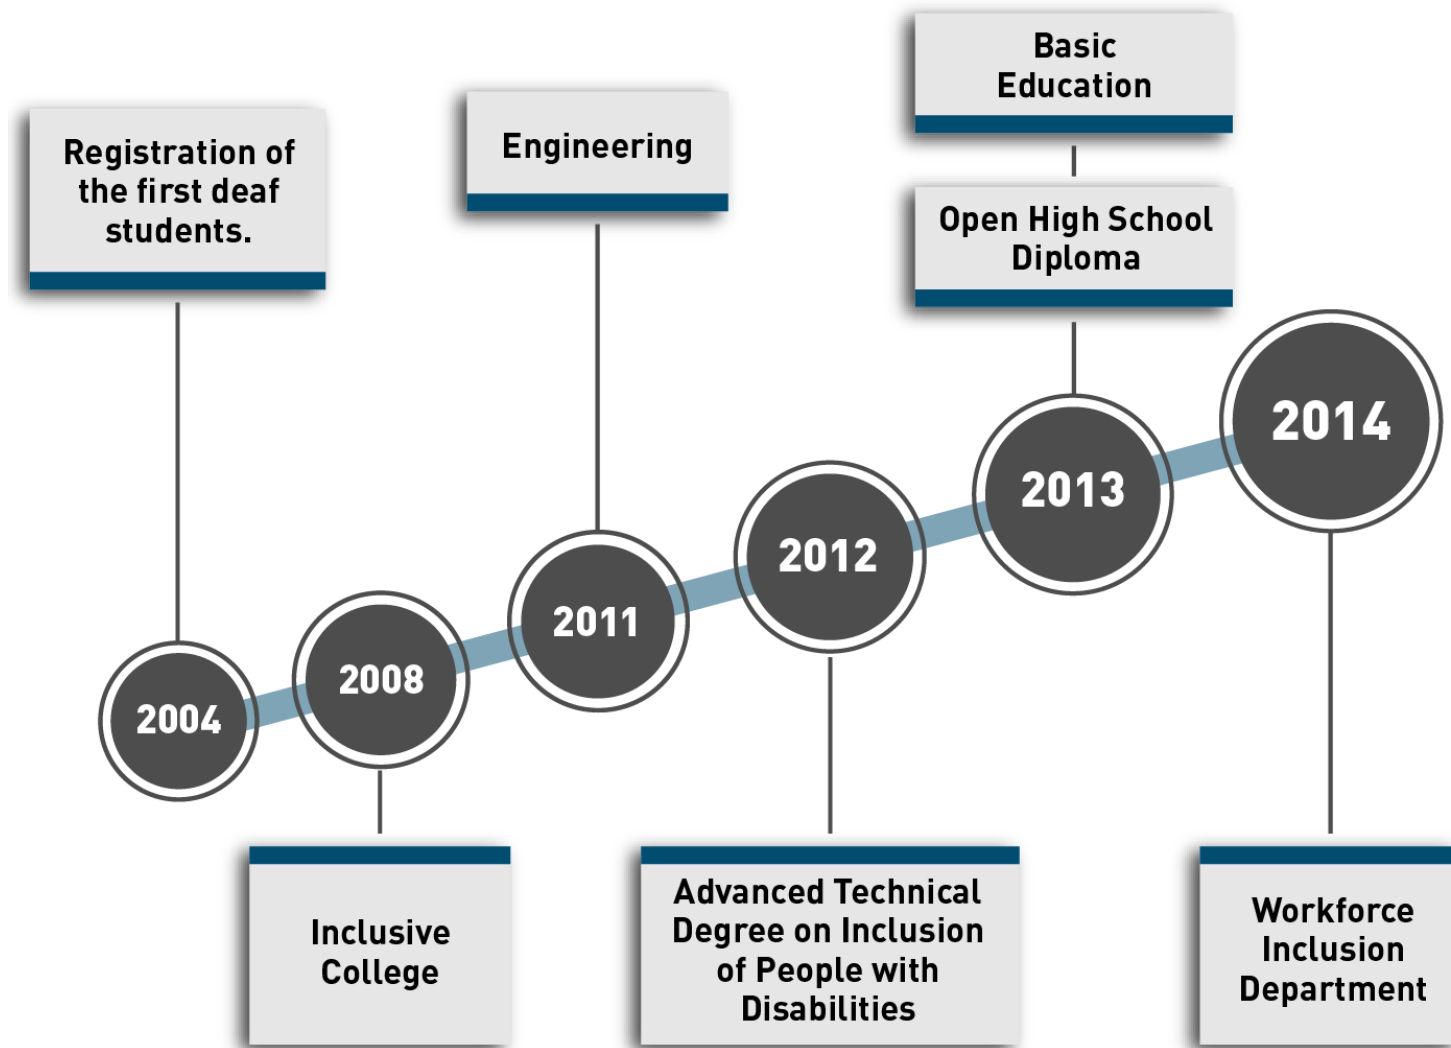

Total of Universities

113 Technical

60 Politechnical

Model's evolution

Program for Educational Inclusion for Students with Disabilities

The program's objective is to provide educational services to all the people over 15 years of age that are vulnerable because of a disability, due to a physical, sensorial, visual or hearing impairment, intellectual or mental type. This means: all the people with disabilities, older than 15 years who wish to continue their academic preparation at any level.

INCLUSIVE GROUPS

Students with and without disabilities in the same classroom.

SINGLE EDUCATIONAL OFFERING

Curricula and evaluation system are the same for individuals with and without disabilities.

ACADEMIC ACCESSIBILITY

Learning material and evaluations accesible according to the needs of each student.

Additional Support

100% scholarships

Accessible Transportation

Tiflotechnic Room

Universal Design

Additional Support

Sign Language Interpreters

Tutors

Psycho-pedagogical Department

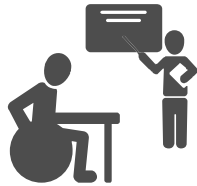

Labor Inclusion

Beneficiaries

431

Graduates until 2015

628

Registered in January 2016
(AT, Eng. INEA, College)

11
(10%)

UTSC Employees with disabilities

1478 Total number of beneficiaries