

Because we believe in work!

“Having a job is important to get in contact with people without disabilities.

Otherwise, your world becomes too narrow.”

Lien, trainee

www.letsco.be | koen.deweer@konekt.be

Meet Lien. She has a dream.

And it's not

Now Lien has a job

A story with an impact on the students

- Taking a course that is all about work
- Offering challenging future perspectives
- Leading an interesting life
- Getting respect
- Showing talents
- Being more connected
- Better mental health
- Sense of belonging

A story with an impact on society

- Fewer people on waiting lists for care
- Children / employees / parents with an open mind
- A warmer society
- Diversity

Success rate: 75%

- Focus on talent and power
- Combination of training-on-the-job and education
- No worries about things you are not good at
- Small steps
- One size fits one! Not all!
- Motivation
- Methodology
- Responsibility
- Support – support – support

